THE ASSOCIATION FOR UK INTERACTIVE ENTERTAINMENT

Alpha joins Ukie and will attend Gamescom

Alpha Games is proud to announce that we have joined Ukie, the only trade body for the U.K.'s interactive entertainment and games industry.

What is Ukie? Ukie (pronounced you-key) is the association for UK Interactive Entertainment. Ukie's goal is to make the UK the best place in the world to make games. Ukie wants to ensure that the UK is games friendly by ensuring the right economic, cultural, political, and social environments exist. Ukie represents over 450 games industry businesses, from the big three of Nintendo, Microsoft, and Sony, to major publishers and independent startups.

Alpha is excited to join the nonprofit group Ukie to ensure that the UK continues to be a positive force for the games industry.

Alpha will also be joining Ukie in Cologne, Germany for Gamescom 2019. We'll be a part of Ukie's space at Gamescom. If you're interested in meeting with Alpha or would like to know more about Alpha's translation and localization services, please reach out to us.
